Trainer, writing of Dr Colenso's sayings, writes:
were taken no part whatever in the theoretical questions raised by Dr. Colenso in regard to the inspiration of the Bible. I very simply see in him an honest man, and himself a very great deal of trouble to him that he may do what his conscience tells him to do, and speak fearlessly what he believes to be a truth. He may be very wrong in some of his opinions, but he is right in saying what he believes to be true. He has the courage to say so, and to emphasize as he can, if he believes it to be true. A man however wrong in his view of things, honestly and bravely held, is not in spirit of discouragement,
